

MooMooCoo Free Guides.

2019 Best Global Dividend Paying Companies To Invest.

Sustainable Dividend is important for your Investment Portfolio.

These companies can pay you a 3-6% dividends yearly without working hard.

Disclaimer

MooMooCoo.com is not a financial authorised company. None of the authors are approved by UK financial conduct authority. Please invest at your own risk. Financial investments are 100% capital loss.

Total E&P (France)

MAJOR OIL COMPANY
WITH 5.2% DIVIDENDS

Total E&P is one of the top major operator with the best exploration team in the world. Strong drive for their excellent offshore drilling campaigns, Total have focused heavily on finding excellent return on investment fields. Strong expansion in South America, Middle East and Africa, these French champions are looking to dominate the market for the next decade.

Total have already beaten Shell and BP to the Middle East and Africa continent race. The next five years would be heavily focused on the low capital expenditure projects in South America basins.

With a PE ratio of under 12, Total E&P is undervalued compared to its closed rivals. With Oil price at the average $50 a barrel Total has record breaking profits in 2018. 2020/21 horizon with the rising of oil, the company has already declared forecast growing dividends in advance to showcase their confidence.

01 Dividends never cut for last 35 years.

02 €2.72 dividends per share in 2020.

03 Total is worth €125bn.

04 Global production is $35 per barrel.

€48.43
per share

05 2.78m barrels of oil reported in 2018.

FEB 2019 REPORT

Diageo (U.K.)

2ND LARGEST BEVERAGE
WITH 2.19% DIVIDENDS

Diageo owns Johnny Walker, Smirnoff, Baileys and Guinness which are just a few of their world known brands. Diageo is regarded as one of the least volatile companies in the world with great buoyancy against financial crisis. Everyone drinks during happy and sad economic eras worldwide. With the decline in cigarette sales ,for the obvious health reason, drinking consumption are on the rise year on year.

Diageo shares are not cheap compared to other rivals. Many institutional investors calls Diageo a 'Luxury' company with the perfect top. 2018 organic growth at 13% in Asia and 6% in North America with the brands momentum propelling forward.

Diageo are very strict with their capital and marketing expenditure with optimised logistics from over 100 years of experience. With their quick turnaround with the booming Gin market, Diageo is not afraid to innovate.

01 24% profit margin.

02 £12bn 2018 revenue sales.

03 Average 5% dividend growth year on year.

04 Most consumed Whisky, Rum and Liquor co.

05 $5.3bn revenue from Johnnie Walker alone.

£28.43
per share

FEB 2019 REPORT

Rio Tinto (Australia)

3RD LARGEST MINING
WITH 5.21% DIVIDENDS

One of the oldest multi national companies in the world with operations in the harshest environment for rare earth materials. Company revenue grew from $10bn to 40bn in the last 15 years and still growing. With most operations in 3rd world developing countries, Rio never shys from media disruptions from corruptions to allegations.

Rio are not just in the market for raw manufacturing materials such as copper and iron. They have diversity for other markets too. Rio is the clear leader in mining earth materials, such as Cobalt and Lithium, for electric vehicles. Argyle Pink Diamonds are women's best friend, therefore Rio Tinto are dividends investor's best friend too.

With Price Earnings ratio hovering between 10-12, which makes Rio Tinto a very affordable book value company. With 2018 debt reduced by almost $2bn and a shares buy back of $2.5bn shows how strong the cash flow is.

01 Founded in 1873

02 Leaders in electric car battery mining.

03 Owns the largest Argyle Pink Diamond mines.

04 Over 20% operating margin.

05 Decreasing Operating expenses.

AU$90.50
per share

FEB 2019 REPORT

BMW (Germany)

LUXURY CAR MAKER WITH 5.5% DIVIDENDS

Everyone knows and wants to own a BMW badge at least once in their lifetime. An incredible brand company who never shy from every form of marketing campaign. This German Haus started building aircraft engines then change route after the treaty of Versailles in 1929.

BMW actually produced the first electric vehicle in 1972 which only had 20 minutes charge. BMW also owns Rolls Royce and Mini which are also two excellent brands in the car industry. The evolution of the Diesel to Electric Vehicle market may require more expenditure shake up to keep with Tesla's pace. Innovation adds Quality have always been BMW's genetic code which allowed the company survive more than a century.

Investors should view this as a excellent long term company in their portfolio. A company which is likely to be around when your grandchildren turns 18.

01 Low PE of 6 but only 8% profit margin.

02 3-5% revenue growth yearly.

03 Price does not include future Electric Market.

04 Less media disruption. i.e scandals and recalls.

05 Over €4 dividend payout per share.

€69.43
per share

FEB 2019 REPORT